More Minkara love- I want to do the rest of her Arcana one shots too if I can get my hands on some more. It's just a couple pages, not my Japanese selfies (although you may notice it's taking a lot of time) but it's a great if someone else could provide translations. "bird bird" Oh and a little translation note: I know the observation of legs being just "legi" but I chose to use tsuki because it sounds better as a plant and it's what Minkara used too.
